Cooking at 43° North is Calling All ChocoPhiles Saturday, February 8, 1-3:00 pm | Orr's Island Schoolhouse

Do you crave chocolate? Love to cook with chocolate? Want to know more about the world of chocolate? Come to this immersive chocolate experience: bring your own homemade chocolate favorite with enough to share with others (8-12 people) and your recipe. Anything goes: cake, pie, cookies, fudge, candies, etc. Learn about the history of chocolate around the world from an expert at Wilbur's of Maine Chocolate Confections. There will be games and fun for all ages—kids to adults. Register by February 5th by emailing Julie Moulton juliemoulton28@gmail.com or text/call 207-330-5416.

"Say Cheese" with the Harpswell ROMEOS Wednesday, February 12, 12-1:30 pm | Merriconeag Grange

Almost all of us carry around a cellphone with a decent camera these days, but many of us don't know how to really take advantage of it and end up taking blurry or poorly composed photos. Max from Maine Max Media will offer a tutorial on smartphone photography. Lunch is provided. The event is free but registration is needed due to limited seating. Contact Tom Mahoney at oldermeneatingout@gmail.com or call/text 207-295-9088.

Harpswell ROMEOS—Lobstering and Our Working Waterfront Wednesday, February 26, 12-1:30 pm | Merriconeag Grange

We see the sign as we drive into town that Harpswell is a working waterfront community. But what does that really mean? What is the life of a lobsterman like and why is our fishing industry so important? Hear from Matt Gilley about the day-to-day challenges and the call of the sea. Matt serves on several town committees advocating for our working waterfront. Lunch is provided. This event is free, but registration is needed due to limited seating. Contact Tom Mahoney at oldermeneatingout@gmail.com or call/text 207-295-9088.

Transportation to and from any HAH event is available by contacting Callie "CK" Kimball at People Plus, 207-729-0757.
